

CUMBRIA NEEDS YOU

#careersincumbria

Looking for a summer job in one of the most exciting industries in Cumbria? There are plenty of opportunities in Cumbria's thriving tourism scene, offering you the chance to develop yourself whilst making some extra cash!

Tourism includes many businesses, with countless different jobs on offer, including waiting on, working in the kitchen, supporting events, housekeeping and much more. You could be working in one of the UK's top hotels, pubs, restaurants or visitor attractions - how good would that look on your CV?

Working in hospitality is a fabulous opportunity to gain some essential employment skills and to build a new network of friends, whilst earning money. You will gain so many transferable skills including communication, team work, self-confidence as well as time management and organisational skills. It's a springboard into a strong, fast-paced industry, with excellent career progression. Even if you are looking at a different career, it's still a great chance to develop your experience in the workplace and build your CV for the future. The hospitality industry really will help you to develop skills that will be globally recognised and suitable for any business, anywhere in the world.
